

Madrigal Dinner 2007

Palo Alto High School Choirs

December 15th and 16th, St. Mark's Episcopal, Palo Alto

Hear Ye, Hear Ye

To celebrate this season of good tidings and peace, our most gracious lord King Henry announces the coming of his 4th annual Madrigal Dinner. The King extends to all his loyal gentry — landed or not — an invitation to join him for a yuletide banquet of fine food, good cheer and hearty merriment at the St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Palo Alto. Whilst their spirits thus are gently moved, the guests shall dine upon sumptuous cuisine prepared by King Henry's own private chefs and be entertained by the King's very own jester. Surrounded by the glorious sounds, lavish costumes and spritely dances of the 16th Century, His Majesty's guests become part of the pageantry, history and celebration of the court of Henry Tudor, King of England. December 15th, 16th 2007.

The Castle

The castle gates open three quarters of an hour before the festivities begin. Guests are advised to arrive in good time so as to be seated when His Majesty's processional begins. Members of the audience will be greeted by His Royal Highness during the festivities, therefore the King requests appropriate royal attire to include Renaissance flavor if desired.
